

A Level Politics

What you will learn:	The A Level Politics course enables you to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>*Understand how the political system works.</li><li>*Challenge how and what you think.</li><li>*Write structured and detailed responses.</li><li>*Develop an enquiring and critical approach to current affairs.</li><li>*Gain confidence from class discussions.</li></ul>
Elements of the course:
Where could it take me?	Politics is highly valued in many careers including Law, Health, Education, Media, Armed Forces, the Police and anything else the Government makes decisions about, which is almost anything! Politics can be studied at university on its own or with various other subjects. Politics compliments other A-Levels well and is highly regarded by universities.
Assessment:	Students will complete 3 x 2 hour exams. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>*UK Politics and Core Ideologies.</li><li>*UK Government and Optional Ideology.</li><li>*US Politics</li></ul>

Entry Requirements

Minimum Required:	Standard Sixth Form entry requirements.
Preferred Requirements:	Grade 5 or above in English Language is desirable, due to the extended writing requirements.
Special Requirements:	